With the theme of A Night in Greece, the 51st Junior-Senior Prom was held April 12 in the Nash Student Center. After gathering on the lawn with friends and family, students entered the main gym for the Grand March when the seniors were introduced by a spotlight as they walked through an archway surrounded by a wide array of colorful flowers. This was followed by two hours of dancing and singing to music provided by DJ Howie D Entertainment.

The framework for three walls were built to make a smaller space within the gym, and colorfully painted depictions of Greece and the Mediterranean Sea covered the walls that were adorned with white lights. Tables covered with white table cloths were decorated with

JUNIOR CLASS RETREAT

As part of the curriculum, the members of the Class of '25 attended the 19th Junior Class Retreat at the Kanuga Conference Center in Hendersonville, North Carolina, March 24-26. Coordinated by Mrs. Laura Barr, Mrs. Martha Jo Smith Johnson '99 and Mr. Glen Rector, the retreat provided rising seniors with a "beyond the classroom walls" experience with a focus on loyalty, leadership and legacy.

The retreat included group activities, structured discussions, and opportunities for enjoying the facilities of the conference center located in the Blue Ridge Mountains. Activities included a mountain hike led by Mr. Chuck McCord and a night hike around Kanuga Lake led by Mr. Lee Gandy, as well as team-building games organized by the Mountain Outdoor Trail School. Each morning began with a devotion and prayer led by Mr. Gandy.

Mr. Rector opened the retreat with a presentation asking "Where Are You Going" which was followed by Mr. Brent Kaneft '00, Head of School, presenting a challenge to the class. Mr. Kaneft included a retrospective slideshow entitled "Days of Our Lives" which featured old photos of students and faculty, describing the history of the school.

Mr. Eddie Talley, Assistant Head of School, spoke to the students about leadership and used a scene from the film "Remember the Titans" to illustrate his point. Dr. Milt Lowder '90, a licensed counseling psychologist in Greenville, delivered the keynote speech with the topic of "Defining Success."

Mr. Kaneft spoke to the students about freedom and the responsibility of freedom. Before students had lunch before departing, Mr. McCord gave the final presentation about the class's legacy in the inn's fireplace lounge.

JUNIOR...CONTINUED

The students were divided into five activity groups, led by faculty members, to work on a project that culminated in an iMovie presentation. Organized by Mrs. Molly McDuffie, each group was given the task of identifying traits or characteristics it would like to emulate, then create three to five minute iMovies.

In addition to the presentations, students participated in a variety of activities such as an autograph search, improvisational acting group activities led by Mr. George Carruth '06, and "Got Your Back" for which students wrote affirming messages on pieces of paper taped to the backs of classmates. A social hour with snacks and refreshments was held in the lodge the first night, and throughout the retreat there was ample free time for students.

Students stayed in the historic cottages of Kanuga, with each cottage having a faculty member chaperone. In addition to the faculty members previously mentioned, also chaperoning the trip were Mr. Sean Hoskins, Mrs. Molly Simpson Matthews '93, Mrs. Sarah Smith and Mr. Sam Watford '16.

Every member of the Class of 2025 had the opportunity to enjoy the significant benefits of a time set apart for community building and individual character development in a way that will not only benefit each student individually, but continue Wilson Hall's strong tradition of effective preparation for college and beyond.

Middle School Track Teams Win State

Both the middle school boys and girls track teams, coached by Mr. Rip Ripley, won the South Carolina Independent School Association Middle School State Meet hosted by Wilson Hall. Athletes from 19 teams participated in the meet.

Winning first place in their events for the boys were Ethan Bentley '28 - discus, Harris Huffman '28 - high jump and 300 hurdles, Keighan Norton '28 - pole vault, and Shep Vincent '28 - triple jump. The 4x100 relay team of Nolan Gooch '28, Huffman, Vincent and Gibb Wilder '28 also placed first.

The following girls won their events: McKinley Bath '29 - javelin, Bailey Flemming '28 - 100, and Grace Stewart '29 - high jump.

Senior Service Project

The members of the Class of '24 spent the morning of April 12 performing a variety of service projects in the Sumter community. Following breakfast on the Bynum Rooftop Garden, the students were divided into three groups before loading buses to travel to Crosswell Home for Children, Sumter United Ministries, and Sumter United Ministries Emergency Shelter.

For Crosswell, students organized clothing donations, sorted summer supplies, and worked on the grounds. At the emergency shelter, the group did some exterior painting and repaired a wooden ramp. For United Ministries, students sorted donated clothes, organized the food pantry, inventoried items for fire and domestic violence victims, painted parts of the exterior, and rebuilt a picnic table.

The project was coordinated by Mrs. Day Caughman, Class President Davis Lee '24, and Mr. Glen Rector, and Mr. Shawn Custer and Mrs. Elizabeth Lee assisted in chaperoning the students.

Middle School Dance

Dancing and singing to the tunes of Ronny Lane, the professional D.J. with PartyTime Entertainment in Columbia, over 150 middle school students crowded the Nash Student Center cafeteria the last evening before Spring Break. Sponsored by the Middle School Student Council, advised by Ms. Heather Eldridge '93, class officers provided the refreshments and tropical decorations for the spring dance.

The week prior to the dance, Ms. Jennifer Alford Reimer '00 of Miss Libby's School of Dance organized shag and line dancing lessons during activity periods after standardized testing. Assisting Ms. Eldridge in chaperoning were the following faculty members: Mrs. Teresa O'Hare Alexander '98, Mrs. Lori Brown, Mr. George Carruth '06, Mr. Lee Gandy, Mrs. Lori Gandy, Mrs. Susie Herlong, Mrs. Molly McDuffie, Mr. Neal Moersen '06 and Mrs. Lauri Peyton.

Anna Reese Altman, Kenleigh Barnette, Angela Carter & Clara Hulshizer, Class of '30.

JUNIOR HONOR MARSHALS

The following members of the Class of '25, who have attended Wilson Hall since the tenth grade and have the highest grade point averages in the class, were named as Junior Honor Marshals: Abby Bradley, Josie Jackson, Diya Patel, Sara Hayes Ridgeway, Andrew Segars and Sara Helen Simmons. They were announced by Mr. Brent Kaneft '00, Head of School, and were presented blue sashes by Mrs. Susan Barfield, Academic Dean, during a ceremony held for students, faculty and parents. The marshals will participate in the Senior Awards Program and the Graduation Ceremony.

MILITARY KIDS CELEBRATED

As part of the Month of the Military Child, Wilson Hall commemorated "Purple Up! For Military Kids" on April 15 as students and faculty wore purple to show support for military children. On the hallway bulletin boards were world maps with pin drops of all the places the students have lived while their parents have served the country; they have lived in nine countries and 29 states. Approximately 20% of the student body is associated with the military. Mrs. Day Caughman, School Counselor, coordinated the project.

Mind, Brain & Education Workshop

Wilson Hall hosted 40 educators for a workshop on mind, brain, and education (MBE) research on April 13. Glenn Whitman, Director of The Center for Transformative Teaching & Learning and co-author of Neuroteach: Brain Science and the Future of Education, led the workshop. He was joined by Christine Lewis (early and elementary education) and they provided an extensive introduction into the field of MBE and how the science of learning can have a major impact on student learning. The collaboration involved educators from Heathwood Hall Episcopal School, Liberty STEAM Charter School, Spartanburg Day School, Wilson Hall and other schools from around the state.

Lucille Michaels '36 & Ellie Morris '36 pick strawberries during a class trip to Dorr Farms in Gable. Students also learned about the life of bees and how they contribute to the farm, played on the playground, and fed the farm animals.

THEATER AWARDS

Members of the cast of the spring musical, The Music Man Jr., were recognized during the cast party held on the Bynum Rooftop Garden in March.

Mr. George Carruth '06, director, presented special awards to Katie Croft '24 and Slade Custer '24 as the leading performers of the show. He also presented the Wilson Hall Star of Excellence to the following cast and crew members for exceptional contributions to the theater program: Dillon Bartlett '24, Mary Claire Bearak '24, Daniel Burton '24, Elizabeth Busch '24, Croft, Custer, Frances Mac Elmore '25, Landon Gilley '24, Jeremiah Jones '24, Ben Reynolds '24, Liz Singkhonket '26, and Sophie Sweatman '25.
